

What is a vision statement?

The vision statement should be a clear and inspiring description of what the subject aims to achieve in the future. It's like a guiding star—defining aspirations and setting a long-term direction. Think of it as answering the question: "Where do we want to go?" It's meant to be ambitious, motivating, and forward-thinking.

Guiding criteria:

- Makes clear what is unique to the subject
- Reflects the key drivers in the context of that subject
- Is focussed on the essence of the subject
- Future focussed

Vision statement

Modern History cultivates a deep understanding of historical concepts and skills, inspiring students to use the past as a lens to critically evaluate and make sense of the present.

Inquiry and analysis stimulate students' curiosity and immersion in the past, fostering an appreciation for complex/contested narratives and the dynamic nature of history itself.

The subject nurtures informed, empathetic and passionate thinkers who embrace diverse perspectives prepared to navigate and contribute to an evolving world.

NB: as Subject Renewal Groups (SRGs) progress through the Subject Renewal process, plans and documents will be further refined and updated.