

SACE LEADERSHIP AND QUALITY LEARNING FORUMS

Purpose: To provide a forum for educational leaders to consider local, national and international perspectives and experience in developing professional expertise in educational assessment.

Thursday, 13 June 2013
Allan Scott Park, Morphettville SA

8:30 Coffee and registration

9:00 Welcome and introduction

Paul Kilvert, Chief Executive, SACE Board of SA

9:30 Enhancing professional expertise in educational assessment – perspectives from the Chartered Institute of Educational Assessors (CIEA)

Mr Graham Herbert, former Director of the CIEA

- Challenges in developing the Chartered Institute of Educational Assessors in the United Kingdom
- Perspectives on the work of school leaders and models for building professional expertise in educational assessment

Table Talk and Feedback

10:45 Morning Tea

11:15 Improving teacher quality and educational outcomes – the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers

Ms Margery Evans, Chief Executive Officer, Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership (AITSL)

- Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership: development context of the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers, and the Australian Charter for the Professional Learning of Teachers and School Leaders
- Focusing on leadership and the inter-relationship of professional standards and student learning outcomes

Table Talk and Feedback

12:45 Close

