COMMUNITY STUDIES A

After consultation with the subject community, no changes are required to this subject outline.

STATEMENT ABOUT FLEXIBILITIES

Students can demonstrate evidence of their learning to the highest performance standard through tasks that use lower word or time limits allowed within this subject.

It should be noted that word counts and time limits are specified as maxima only and teachers have the flexibility to design tasks with lower word or time limits, while honouring the learning intent and maintaining the cognitive demand of the subject.

Teachers are encouraged to collaborate and discuss ideas through PLATO Social.

For the 10-credit subject, where ‘community contacts’ and ‘community audience’ is referred to in the subject outline regarding the Presentation, and in the assessment design criteria for Communication and interaction, ‘community contacts’ and ‘community audience’ should be considered in the broadest possible form.

For the 20-credit subject, flexibilities exists in the nature, scope and depth of the community activity and the contract of work in this subject. Time allocations should be designed as appropriate to the community activity and the contract of work.
